

DAVID FREY

Mr. Frey is a Portfolio Manager and head of the broadly syndicated loan investment business at Highbridge Principal Strategies. Prior to joining HPS in 2010, Mr. Frey was a Partner and Senior Portfolio Manager at Stanfield Capital Partners, where he managed over $5.2 billion of non-investment grade loans and bonds across 14 separately managed accounts and CLOs, and was a member of the firm's management. Prior to joining Stanfield in 2004, he was a Principal and Senior Analyst at Katonah Capital and an analyst at GoldenTree Asset Management. From 1993 to 2001, Mr. Frey was a Principal in the Investment Banking Division of Morgan Stanley, where he managed all aspects of new issue transactions including IPOs and convertible offerings, high yield debt offerings, bridge loans, and senior leveraged loans. He also worked on a number of M&A and strategic advisory assignments. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley, Mr. Frey worked in the Merchant Banking Group of Chase Manhattan Bank and as a credit analyst in the Commercial Lending Division of Firststar Bank.

Mr. Frey received a BS in Economics from the University of Wisconsin in 1988 and an MBA from Columbia Business School in 1993

Highbridge
212.287.6816
david.frey@highbridge.com